It shows how to start from using basic shapes like circles, squares, ovals etc to make a base framework for your drawing, and than how to flesh it out. A good basic drawing learning system. If like me you still have no talent, it's still a hard slog to get better.

Did you know that coloring helps bring out the artist in you? Thats right! Coloring is all about learning about color relationships and how lines, forms and shapes interact with each other to form art. Its amazing how the mind quickly opens up when theres coloring involved. As a result, knowledge is formed and information is better remembered. Grab a copy today!
