very informative fast moving book that I assure everyone will enjoy. He seems like a very intelligent and talented man.

Before there was Ringo, there was Pete. Drummer with the Beatles from 1960 to 1962, Best played with the band in Liverpool and Hamburg, then was unceremoniously dropped on the eve of fame and fortune. In Beatle! he relates previously unknown anecdotes that form a fascinating look at the least-documented period of Beatles history.

'It reads well and... - rare for a rock book these days - ...care and preparation went into it.' -- Melody Maker
'The Pete Best Story by Pete Best Patrick Doncaster is a must for all fans of the Fab Four.' -- Woman's Own
'This is the first book by one of the original Beatles to describe in candid detail those early years' -- The News Line
