About the AuthorI have been an active member of the Philadelphia Contract Bridge Association (2500 members) Board of Directors for thirty years and was inducted into the PCBA Hall of Fame in 2007. I have chaired numerous committees at Sectional, Regional and National tournaments. In 2003, I was elected to the National Goodwill Committee of the American Contract Bridge Association as a lifetime member in recognition of outstanding service to the ACBL. I am an Emerald Life Master (9000 Master Points) and play as much as I teach. I began teaching bridge in 1995 and currently conduct weekly group lessons of 200 400 people as well as many others in private lessons. My classes range from beginners to advanced level. I push my students to join the ACBL and play in tournaments and have proudly watched 35 of them become Life Masters. It has been a great pleasure to have introduced so many people to the wonderful game of bridge and have had so many of them become fast friends and lasting partners.
