Gilles Almavi, Jrme Bel, Cosmin Costinas, Bojana Cvejic, Tim Etchells : Boris Charmatz: Modern Dance before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Boris Charmatz: Modern Dance:

Since shocking audiences in 1993, at age 19, with his radically sparse bras le corps, Boris Charmatz (born 1973) has emerged as one of Frances leading choreographers. Whether hes creating a dance composed solely of everyday actions, working with an ensemble of children or running a "dancing museum," Charmatz's work experiments with the body as a vessel for subjectivity, history and collective action. Featuring original essays and interviews and an oral history by Charmatz's contemporaries, this book is the first to explore the many facets of his career as choreographer, writer and director of France's Musée de la danse.
