By Andrea Olson of Go Diaper Free I needed to find Pantone colors for the 9 color swatches of the clothing I'm having made out of country. I didn't want to buy the $500 fashion pantone color book, as I a) don't have that kind of money to blow and b) only need 9 color codes. So I figured that out of the 140 colors in this book, I am happy to say that I immediately found perfect matches WITH the Pantone C or Pantone TPX color codes for each swatch color. I've emailed those codes to my manufacturer overseas and my last block to production of Tiny Undies for babies has been removed...all thanks to this book! I highly recommend. Esp with the screw that enabled me to remove the cards and compare side by side, this was an incredible purchase. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. I love this book By S. Cain I love to look through the pretty palette ideas. I love the colors. The book is about postcard sized (a little bigger) and there is a screw so you can unscrew it, lay out the different palettes, see how they relate to one another, rearrange them, put them up on your wall. I have been a graphic designer for 15 years, and I love this book. It's feel-good for designers. :) 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love this thing as a gift for someone who likes ... By Cait Love this thing as a gift for someone who likes to decorate (or even do those adult coloring books). It feels really sturdy and high-quality. Great color combo inspirations

In this handy fan deck, international color authority Pantone takes the guesswork out of using color in bold and innovative new ways, sharing the wisdom that has made their professional products an essential resource around the globe.

"Not all of us have an interior designer with a great eye for color. But PANTONE: 35 Inspirational Color Palettes is a quick way to be inspired and get some guidance.... The new purse-sized, fan-out case, which is available at bookstores and online, contains 35 fascinating cards, each representing a color environment/mood and the colors to achieve it. Take it to the paint store, fabric shop or accessories store to coordinate the look of a room." -- Cleveland Plain Dealer
