9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Great help for beginners By MaryC This set is great for someone trying to learn the game. Without paying a $100 for a game you can get this with well written instructions as well as cards with all the symbols needed. 7 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Well worth the money to learn American Mahjongg By K. Carter This was just perfect for learning to play American Mahjongg. I still dig it out and play by myself - making up dummy hands to play with me!! 24 of 26 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful Aid for Learning By Patricia A. Armstrong This set is just what several of my older students were looking for rather than buying a set early on to practice what they needed to become excellent players. Many will get along fine with just the book, which is larger when bought alone, but some will enjoy having the cardboard pieces to practice hands in between lessons or times when folks get together to play. I gave the set to a woman who was recuperating from foot surgery in a rehab facility so she could practice while there. For robust players, they will want to own a set, but for teaching and practicing I haven't seen anything that matches this quality. The Mah Jongg League has done a fabulous job of getting great books out to the public to make this game more accessible and fun for a greater number of people. I will buy more of this set in the future as I teach another class in the Spring.
