types of logic puzzles. Two have a bit of elementary math involved but they're still logic puzzles at heart. I will confess that the title "One-Minute Puzzles You Can Solve in Three Minutes or Less" still doesn't make sense. I'm a pretty advanced puzzler but these were so different for me that I could not solve a couple without looking at the answer for hints on just how to go about it. One type was so easy and fun that I raced through the whole book solving all that type of puzzle. The other three were so frustrating that they weren't any fun and I tossed the book into a drawer. The next night I was determined to solve something and I picked it up again. Over the next week I really did, just as the book says, figure out better ways to solve the puzzles and it became much more fun. Not necessarily easier, but definitely fun. I finished the whole book in about 2 weeks so the reason for 4 stars instead of 5 is that I think it's a bit expensive for the number of puzzles included.

By Hgrey33 This is my favorite of the puzzle books I ordered by Pocket Posh. These are mathier puzzles (which I like) and are easy to solve in under a minute. Check out the preview pages - shows good examples of what types of puzzles are in the book. Not super challenging (meant to be solved in a minute) and not a huge variety of puzzle types, but very enjoyable nonetheless. I can tell they are getting easier for me to solve as I go, so I think the daily practice is helping, though maybe it would be helpful if the puzzles got harder as you go through it?

By Lauren I love the Pocket Posh collection but I was disappointed with these puzzles. There are a few different puzzles, and yes, some are under a minute but they aren't that much fun. I was disappointed.

This engaging collection is chockfull of timely brain training puzzles selected and grouped by the time it should take to solve each 1 minute, 2 minutes, or 3 minutes. With Pocket Posh One-Minute Puzzles, puzzlers get 200 puzzles presented in timed groupings of one, two, or three minutes--the amount of time it should take to complete each puzzle. These logic puzzles offer an assortment of word and number brainteasers that can be solved in the amount of time indicated, be it one minute, two minutes, or three minutes. Take the dare! Time yourself for a quick brain workout!
