Joyce Lee : The Plays of Faith before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Plays of Faith:

I thank God for the power and knowledge that he have given me to write these plays through His grace and honor it allows me to get the opportunity to minister "The Word of God" to non-believers as well as believers. I trully believe that thru my plays a message is sent, but most of all received. My prayer is that someone's life is change or delivered through watching or performing in these plays. To share with others how powerful God is and that it is a reality in serving a true and living God. How God can change the hearts and minds of people. These plays are to inspire others to do the right thing to help others when needed, be careful you what say (watch your tongue) and personal you can determine where you will stand eternity.

About the AuthorJoyce Lee is a native Houstonian graduating from Evan E. Worthing Sr. High School. She is the president of the Usher Nurse's Ministry, a Sunday School Teacher and a active member of the Pastor Aide, Mission, Benevolence and Prayer Team at the Starlight Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Allen T. Guillory Sr. Also she is a Teacher and Vice-President of the Ark of Love Association Usher and Nurses under the leadership of Moderator E. L. Burnside of Mt. Carmel M. B. C. For many years Joyce has loved to present programs and plays for the Church or Pastor and Wife Anniversary. In 2008 God inspired her to write her first play Heaven and Hell Wedding, which she put on in 2009. God continues to get His message to His people by using her talents. In 2010 God gave her a title of a play Be Careful What You say (Watch Your Tongue). She shared her divine inspiration for this play with Sis Annette Guillory-Wallace, who God has used through the Holy Spirit, to write and direct this play. These plays are paving the way for her to share what God has given her.
