So when I saw the book To India With Love published by Assouline I bought ItBy Dorothea DiamosI was in a hotel somewhere and picked up this little free book that was in the room titled India Art Culture Food Assouline. It is lovely. So when I saw the book To India With Love published by Assouline I bought It. Part goes to a good cause so I only feel good although to me the little,free, hotel book was the one.9 of 9 people found the following review helpful. A loving snapshot of India's beauty and soulBy MimiI very much enjoyed this book the purpose of which is to raise money to support the victims of the Mumbai terrorist attack last year and have purchased multiple copies to give as Christmas gifts. It is full of beautiful images of this rich, historic country. The personal thoughts offered by famous people and others who love this land are interesting and well written. Bravo to the three young editors who came up with the idea of using this book to help so many needy victims.

Ask people who have been there, and they will all tell you India is like no other place in the world, a land that stirs every one of the five senses and stays in your heart forever. It is this India that brought together three friends, Waris Ahluwalia, Mortimer Singer and Tina Bhojwani to raise funds, spirits, and awareness for the victims of the attacks in Mumbai in November, 2008. The editors set out to create a scrapbook collecting personal photos, stories, and memories from people who, like themselves, love India. The contributors include Wes Anderson, Adrien Brody, Francesco Clemente, Anthony Edwards, Jeanine Lobell, Natalie Portman, Yves Carcelle, Jean Touitou, Owen Wilson, Laura Wilson, Cynthia Rowley, James Ivory, Matthew Williamson, Rachel Roy, Tory Burch, Padma Lakshmi and Shobhaa De. This book declares to Mumbai and the whole country that we are all thinking of them and support them: hence To India, with Love: New York to Mumbai. Profits from the sales of the book will go to support families affected by the attacks. This book can truly make a difference, by opening eyes to the wonders of India and by once again letting the pen or a camera dominate the sword.

About the Author Born in India and raised in New York, Waris Ahluwalia creates jewels for the House of Waris and hopes to share with the world the impact India has on his heart and soul. Tina Bhojwani is a New York based fashion executive specializing in international business development. She is currently the senior vice president for Theory LLC. Mortimer Singer is senior vice president of Marvin Traub Associates, where he has focused on, among other projects, advising Indian retailers on bringing Western brands to India.
